Sir Ahzz: I'm afraid James has lost it. He is accusing us animal abuse now because baby cat lost weight. Which is patently absurd. he lost weight due to having a proper roaming area in which to run and get exercise instead of 10x14 room, which according to veterinary guidance is legally too small for 2 cats, and thus considered animal abuse.

amoscio: the reason we asked for the cats to be kept in the vault was because the kitten hadn't had any of his sh and Babycat was declawed. it simply wasn't a safe environment for them. That's why we were upset when we returned from oklahoma finding that sarah had taken the kittens out of the room 'for excersice'
